

We arrive in Boston, August 13, 2011.

We stay at the Constitution Marina for 4 days near downtown Boston.

Another view of the marina. About 90 people live on their boats there year round.

The U.S.S. Constitution "Old Ironsides" is located near the marina.

The U.S.S. Constitution in Boston Harbor at the Navy Shipyard.

Carl pretends to be the skipper.

Old Ironsides is the oldest commissioned ship in the U.S. Navy.

The U.S.S. Cassin Young museum ship. It survived 2 kamikaze attacks during WWII.

The U.S.S. Cassin Young in drydock dedicated by President Andrew Jackson at the Navy yard.

Carl looking at a torpedo on the ship.

The Bunker Hill monument.

A cod sculpture near Bunker Hill.

The narrowest house in Boston built out of spite to block the house in back's view. 9 feet wide.

Old North Church where lanterns were hung in the bell tower to alert the town that the British were coming thanks to Paul Revere and his night riders.

Thousands of dog tags commemorating all the lives lost in the Iraq War.

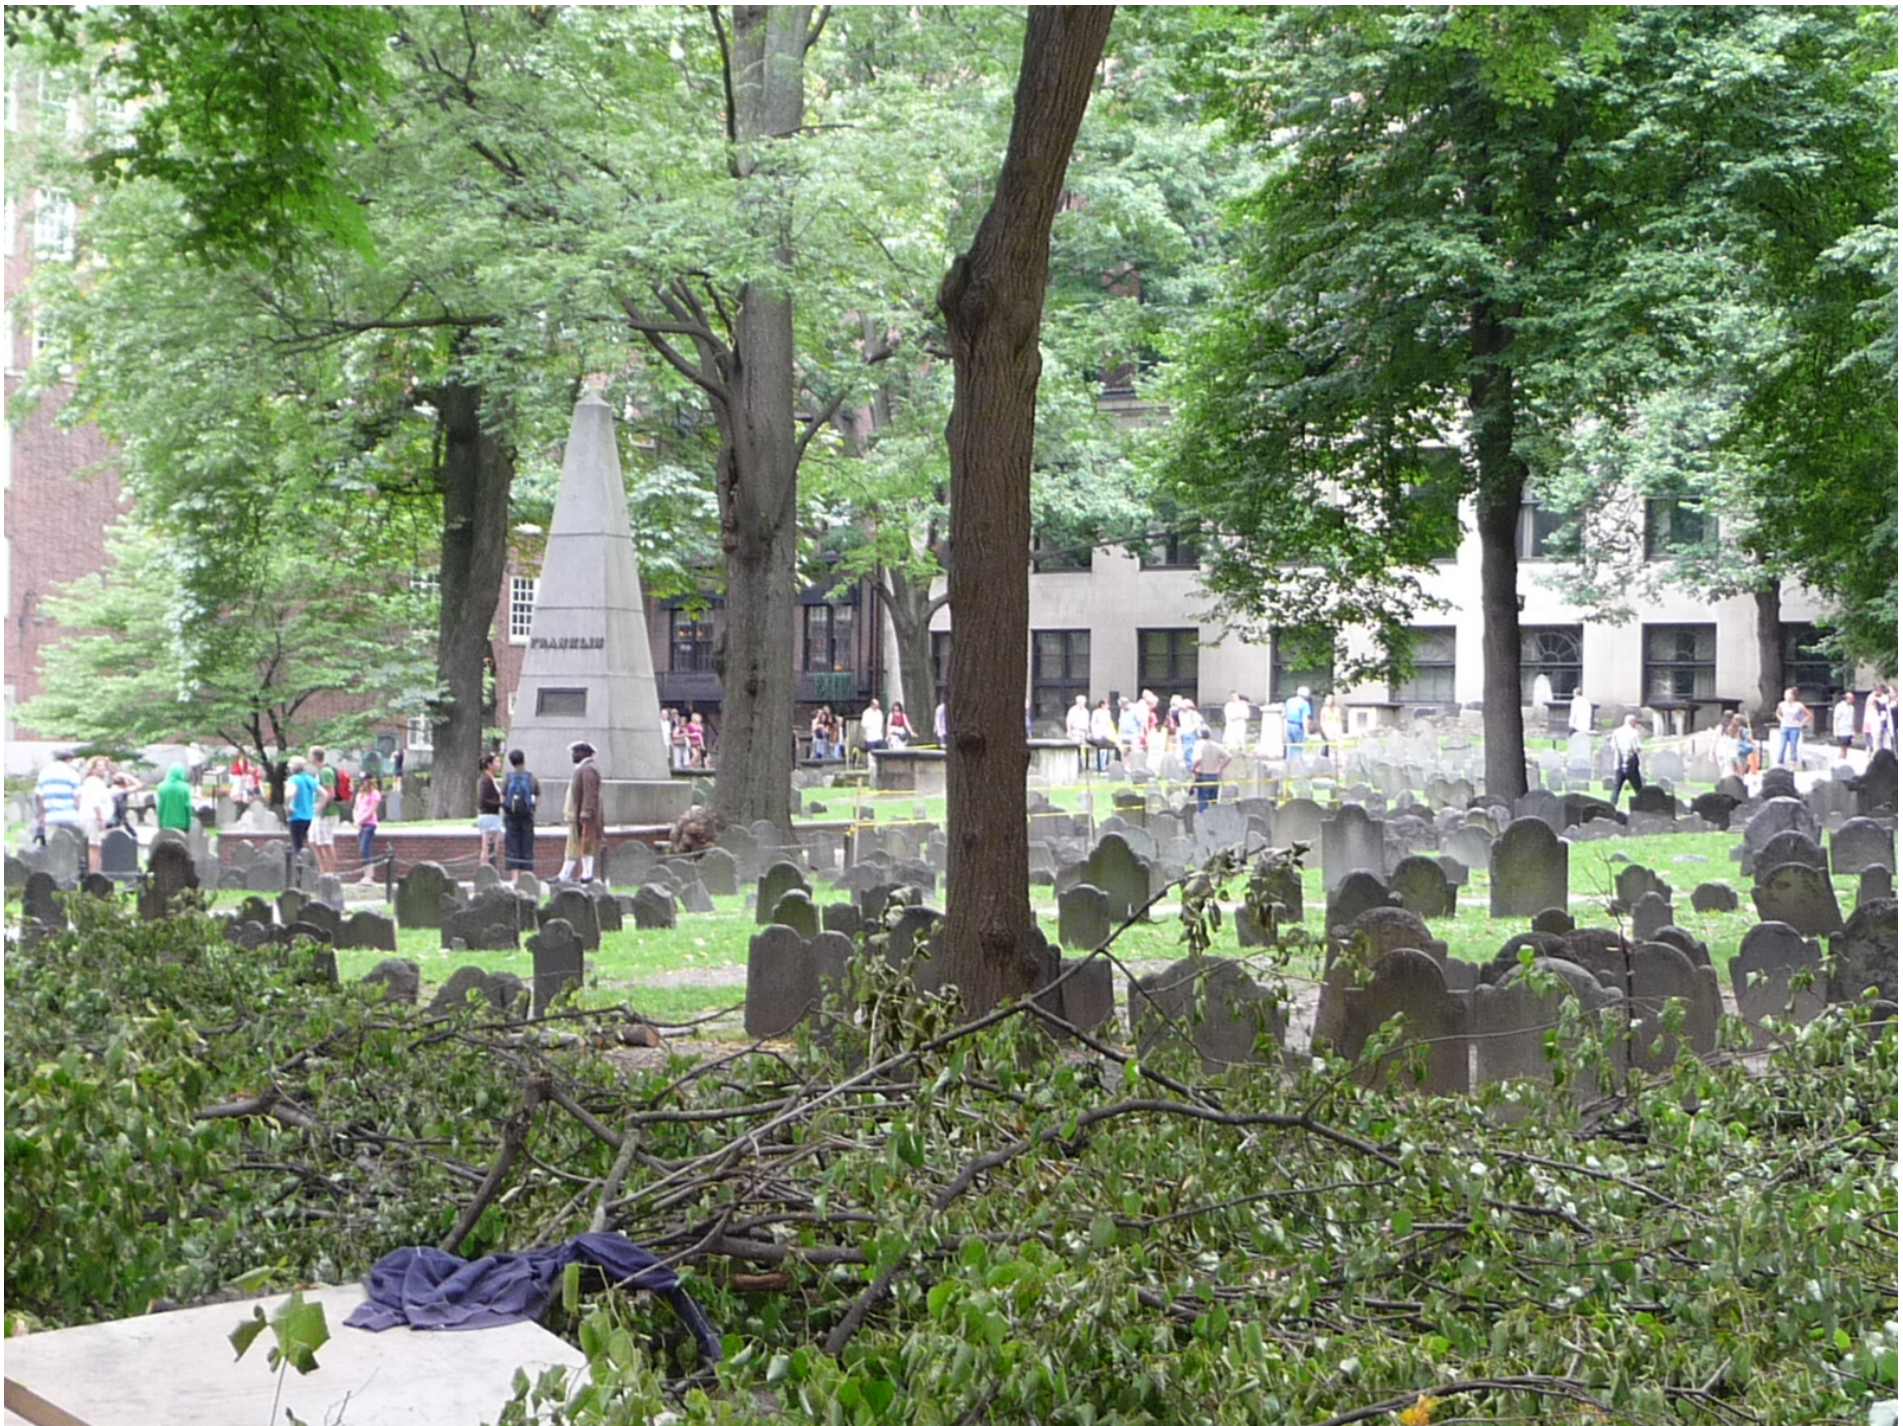

Paul Revere's house from the late 1600's. It has been restored.

The Green Dragon Tavern where the Revolutionaries planned the Boston Tea Party.

Old State House where the Boston Massacre took place. The British shot a many American colonists here

Old Granary Burial Ground. This is where Samuel Adams is buried.

Samuel Adams gravesite.

The wonderful Quincy Market by Faneuil Hall.

Boston Common park on Tremont Street.

Frog Pond in Boston Common.

Bell In Hand tavern from 1795. Oldest tavern in the U.S.

The Italian North End's festival for "Saint Della Cava".

Where the Madonna Della
Cava hangs out in the North End.

The altar for the soon to be paraded "Saint Della Cava" in the North End.