Notice the 'gator trout'. Taxidermy fun.

Carl with the very fun Harbormaster, Jim Boren.

We were so happy to see our Bayfield friend, Terry McGuire, who winters in Inverness, FL. He stayed with us for 2 days.

Our friends, Brian & Kim Larson, let us stay in their wonderful condo on the sea at Daytona Beach Shores. What a great time there with Terry too. All we had to do was empty the cat litter box!

View from the Larson's 3rd floor condo looking north.

View looking south in late afternoon.

Old salts enjoying land life at least for 2 days!

Good food was had by all.

Yes, our birds got to enjoy the Larson's condo too. Nice to see all of their Christmas decorations.

Back at Adventure Yacht Harbor after Terry left.

A short walk to the beach.

Carl out on the pier at Daytona Beach Shores.

Lots of surfboarding going on.

Back in the ICW. Fancy boat and fancy house.

Carl enjoying the nice day on the way to Titusville.

Dolphins visited us.

Surprised to see Jane of Arran with skipper Malcolm going by us. We were tied up with them at Jacksonville Landings.

Titusville at sunset.

Spectacular Titusville sunset.

Loved the lights on the Titusville bridge.

Early morning sunrise at anchor in Titusville. That is the Kennedy Space Center in the distance.

Morning scene in Titusville before we pulled up anchor on our way to Cocoa, FL.

We celebrate Christmas tied up at the Cocoa Village Marina.
