

Minot's Lighthouse right in the water on the way to Scituate after leaving Boston.

The Scituate water taxi bringing people to their boats on moorings.

A music store extraordinaire in Scituate packed to the gills with music & instruments.

Only the music store owner knows where everything is.

We sailed almost the whole way to Provincetown. Fun.

We see the Provincetown Mardi Gras parade which was zany & fun.

Charo was the Grand Marshal of the parade.

KISS wannabees in the parade.

Two guys from Milwaukee.

A guy and his big balls.

The Sound of Music guys.

A cheerleading squad.

A lobster dress.

Not sure what this is but they were sure having fun.

Big boobs were represented.

Tina Turner and who's the blonde?

Hmmm, a gay genie?

Piano hats & dresses.

A wonderfully choreographed “Carpe Diem” group.

Some good dancing on this float.

MUSIC FREES GIVE PEACE A CHANCE

GLENN BECK
CAN'T ASK OR TELL YOUR FIRED!

BACHMAN'S
LIGHT FOOTED HUSBY
CAN'T CURE GAYS

YOU WILL NOT
STOP
THE MUSIC
EVEN WHEN PIGS FLY!!

DONALD TRUMP
OH NO, YOU CAN'T!
(P-TOWN HAS GREAT HAIR SALONS)

PALIN
CAN'T REWR...
REWORD OR F...
AMERICAN H...

PANTS
STOP
THE MUSIC

What fun with bubbles!

Just a few people come to see the Mardi Gras parade in Provincetown.

The Provincetown library's 60 foot model of the schooner Dorothea Rose.

Joyce is happy to see a UU church (the only church) in Provincetown.

David “Scarbie” Mitchell advertising his show which is performed in the UU church. He was one of the “piano hat” duo in the parade the day before.

Carl on our dinghy at the beach at the entrance to Provincetown.

Beach grass & lighthouse with Provincetown in the distance.